

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, Etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of IRON COUNTY REGISTER published weekly at Ironton, Missouri, for October 1, 1917.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
COUNTY OF IRON.
Before me, a clerk of the Circuit Court in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Frank P. Ake, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the IRON COUNTY REGISTER and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement, of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:
That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business manager are:
Publisher, Frank P. Ake, Ironton, Mo.
Managing Editor, Eli D. Ake, Ironton, Mo.
Business Manager, Frank P. Ake, Ironton, Mo.
That the owner is: Frank P. Ake, Ironton, Mo.
That the known bondholders, mortgagees, other securities are: None.
FRANK P. AKE, Publisher.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 1st day of October, 1917.
JESSE M. HAWKINS, Clerk
Circuit Court, Iron County, Mo.

THE imprisonment of Mr. Holliday, the Republic's Jefferson City correspondent, for refusing to tell from whom he had obtained information of the action of the grand jury—which information had been given him in confidence—has a peculiar twang. The testimony of a man who, in giving it, violated his pledged word, wouldn't go far with the average citizen, anyway.

SPEAKING of the designation of the Germans to-day by the term "Hun," M. Howesman in Sunday's Post-Dispatch gives voice to the thought of all people not devilized through Teutonic Kultur:

Nothing could be more applicable. The heinous course of barbarism followed by that outlaw nation fits perfectly a modernized version of Amianthus Marcellus' description. The Hun of antiquity was as disreputable, untrustworthy and cruel as was possible with his limited intellect, but the modern Hun, while possessing all the bestial qualities of the ancient Hun, has carried much further his outrages by applying to their execution the devilish cunning of depraved higher intelligence. He is just as vile, just as dishonorable and untrustworthy, and has made his name a thing to be despised throughout the world. It certainly is not pleasant to be called a Hun, even if it can be disproved, but the name of opprobrium attaches to those living among us, who in the past three years have, by word and deed, stood ignominiously forward in the most stubborn defense of the baby murdering, pillaging principles of the modern Hun. They have broken the laws of our country in the interest of Germany. During the past three years they have steadfastly refused to see any wrong in the ruthless murder of women and babies, and to-day are just as anxious to have Germany win as they were three years ago, notwithstanding our entry into the war. By their works we know them, and by the same token we know that the Hun is in our midst. He is the speaking, poisonous reptile who upholds and encourages his brother Hun across the sea, and who gives moral and tangible support to the insidious cancer which has its nucleus in Berlin. Verily, he is a despicable and loathsome thing.

Goodland Items.
The beautiful autumn weather continues. Clear days and frosty nights. Most of our farmers are sowing wheat. Molasses making still goes on.
Dr. Martin and family have moved from Redmondville to St. Louis.
Mr. Wallen, the hub mill blacksmith, has moved to the mines.
Mr. Ed. White and family are living in Dr. Martin's house.
Wm. Schrum writes that he likes Camp Funston very well.
Ole Akers is beginning to use his crutches.
Mr. Larue has recovered from a very severe sick spell.
Business is booming at East End.
F. M. Adams and family took Miss Clara Henderson home, and spent Sunday with friends in Belgrade.
Mr. Webb Ray of Qates has moved his stove mill to Goodland. Two houses have already been built for his workmen and more are in course of construction. Mr. Ray is a hustler.
Mrs. Salome Blackwell and dear little daughter are welcome guests at the home of her father, R. C. Love.
G. G. Adams and sons have bought several calves lately.
God bless the Red Cross workers and save our soldier boys.

Why not an Auto Road to Ironton?
(Fredericktown Tribune.)
A number of the Iron county people here last week attending the conference asked why we could not have an auto road direct from here to Ironton. There is a great deal of travel between the two places and auto have to go by way of Farmington. Not only the travel between the two places but the people that come out of St. Louis and other places and come to Ironton or this place on business or sight seeing could make a loop and take in both places if the road was made good between here and Ironton. Many people would visit this place and know what we had here if the roads were good.

From here to Oak Grove Store the road is in good shape and about the same distance out of Ironton, leaving only the gap between to be put in good shape.

The worst feature is the bridge across Big St. Francis, but the people of Ironton and Arcadia are willing to help and with all pushing this can be accomplished.

Molasses making is the order of the day.

The heavy frost Friday night did lots of damage.

Eddie Trudo and family, of Herculaneum, visited relatives here last week.

Matt Williams and family, of East End, spent last Sunday at Ironton.

James and Willie Scott with their families, of Desloge, spent last week visiting here.

James Payne, two sons and a daughter are visiting relatives at Desloge.

The people have purchased an organ for the church here.

Ruel and Homer Crocker spent Friday at Middlebrook.

Sheriff's Sale Under Transcript Execution.

By virtue and authority of a transcript execution issued by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the City of St. Louis, Missouri, on the 28th day of June, 1917, upon a judgment rendered by Geo. Graessmuck, a Justice of the Peace for the City of St. Louis, Missouri, against Dr. J. M. Dickey, and in favor of W. H. Wolcott, for the sum of $58.20 and costs, I have levied upon and seized the following described real estate, situated in Iron County, Missouri, to wit:
Beginning at the northeast corner of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-nine (29), township thirty-four (34), north, range four (4) east, running north 36 degrees and 30 minutes west a distance of 2 chains and 65 links to a stake, thence at right angles to this line a distance of 4 chains and 50 links, thence south 36 degrees and 30 minutes east a distance of 10 chains and 60 links to a stake in County Road, thence with the road 4 chains and 64 links, thence north 36 degrees and 30 minutes west a distance of 7 chains and 75 links to the place of beginning;
And I will, on Saturday, the 27th day of October, 1917, and during the sitting of the circuit court, at the east front door of the courthouse in the City of Ironton, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon, sell, to the highest bidder, for cash, all of the interest of the said Dr. J. M. Dickey in and to the above described real estate to satisfy said execution and the costs thereof.

For Weak Women

In use for over 40 years! Thousands of voluntary letters which we have received from women, telling of the good Cardui has done them, constitute proof of the real merit of Cardui, as a woman's tonic, building medicine. There are no harmful or habit-forming drugs in Cardui. It is composed only of mild, medicinal ingredients, which have no bad after-effects, but act in a mild, tonic way, upon the system.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women. It should benefit you, Mrs. Effie Carroll, of Franklin Furnace, Ohio, writes: "I had suffered with female trouble for a long time. I suffered most awful pains... with my back and head... I would be so weak... I could hardly go... I could not sleep at night I would be so restless and nervous... I read of Cardui in the Almanac and began using it... After my first bottle I noted an improvement and kept on... I was cured. I am well and strong." Try Cardui.
